REALTOR CARAVAN PLANS TO START NEXT MONDAY

Local Delegation to Make Good Showing in Trip to San Francisco

It is a long lane that has no turning.

Likewise, it is a bum alarm clock that will stop ringing next Monday morning in the homes of a half dozen real estate dealers planning to place their cars in the "End of the Trail Caravan" from Los Angeles to San Francisco where the national convention will be held this coming week.

For the local contingent, with their cars, will line up in front of the Chamber of Commerce building, have a cup of coffee at the Glen Inn, and start for the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles, at 6.30 o'clock. There at 7 a. m. they will be assigned their places in the parade which will wend its winding way over the Ridge Route to San Francisco with nearly a thousand eastern visiting realtors as guests.

C. D. Thom, president of the local board, will lead the way to the Ambassador and see to it that Glendale gets a prominent place. His party will take several thousand folders to advertise this city, as well as appropriate signs and pennants.

Know Own State

Lon J. Haddock, senior member of the Haddock-Nibley firm which is subdividing Glendale Heights, addressed the realtors on the necessity of knowing their own state and be able to intelligently answer the question: "Will this wonderful era of prosperity continue?"

"You are going to hear that question from almost every one of the visiting delegates, live wires who come from dead or dying communities. If you are not well informed on the possibilities, it is time to get acquainted with them. Let's be walking encyclopedias on our own country for a couple of weeks."

W. O. Boyd of the Los Angeles Examiner staff told the realtors that California's resources are unapproachable.

"No other state has the raw materials we have here," he said, "and no other state has the initiative." He attributed the reports of inactivity on the part of some dealers to the fact that they were lazy—too ready to compare conditions with the past and not keep working with what they have.

Business Is Good

"Every newspaper in Los Angeles is gaining fifteen to forty per cent in advertising, which shows business is mighty good," he said, and then launched into a resume of the work of the All Year 'Round club, telling how they had located one $15,000,000 industry at Vernon and turned the tourist tide this way.

The Pilgrimage play at Hollywood soon will be known as the Passion play of Oberammergau, he pointed out, and beginning next Monday the summer visitors to the southland will begin arriving at the rate of 7,000 a day on three transcontinental railroads and the highways. Los Angeles this year will get nine-tenths of the tourist travel that heretofore has gone to Europe, according to Mr. Boyd.

"Travel to the coast this summer will be two and one-half times greater than it was during the winter season of 1921, according to the estimates made by the railroads," Mr. Boyd stated.

On motion of H. C. Yale, seconded by Mrs. M. L. Tight, a committee was named to get the facts concerning Southern California. Communications were read by Secretary Hayward and the meeting for next week postponed on account of the national convention.

Mrs. Sarah Munn Is Hostess to Visitors

A very enjoyable day was spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sarah Munn of 515 West Colorado street by a group of old friends and relatives. W. Seals of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Munn and daughters, Miss Sibyl Munn and Mrs. Charles Taylor and little daughter, Gloria, of Venice; Mrs. Dora Bundy and Miss Adeline Munn. A cafeteria dinner was served at 1 o'clock.

Rooster Tale for Today, Folks, Has Hen for Heroine!

Surely this is a queer world. A most remarkable number of rooster tales are to be found around Glendale, but here is one about an intelligent hen.

Biddy belongs to Mrs. Peter Erickson of 3723 Revere avenue. The other morning the hen saw the comfortable seat of a motor car in the yard and laid an egg therein.

Then somebody tossed a monkey wrench carelessly into the car, breaking the egg nicely for an omelet a la shell. The summer's sun did the rest in frying the mess.

That certainly equals the story from Mt. Vernon, Ill., where W. A. Kern's hen laid an egg on a skillet.

Then it made its eggs-it from the kitchen undoubtedly!

Have YOU a rooster or a hen tale?

George M. Anderson Anticipates Reunion

A happy reunion of two boyhood playmates is anticipated daily by George M. Anderson, the violin maker, when he and Aaron Hern, now residing in Lankershim, set an hour of appointment.

A few days ago, when Anderson arrived at his little shop in Franklin Court, off East Broadway, he found a card under the door and was startled to read the name of Hern on it. For the moment he couldn't think who Hern was. Then, like a flash, the thought came and now Anderson is waiting for Hern to turn up and renew the boyhood friendship that began in Dawes county, Nebraska, many years ago.

Mrs. Claude Watson and Daughter Leave

After a delightful winter season in Glendale Mrs. Claude Watson and her daughter, Louise, who have been residing in the property at the northwest corner of Doran and Kenwood avenues, departed yesterday morning for their home in Owasso, Mich., where they will join their husband and father, Claude Watson, a prominent wholesale grocer of that community.

Before departing the Watsons stated their desire to return here and, in all probability, Mr. Watson will dispose of his interests in the Michigan city and come to this city to make his permanent home.

Buddy Ingells Is Some Fast Traveler

A. B. (Buddy) Ingells, chief soda dispenser at Cook's confectionery and cafe, 128 South Brand boulevard, is noted for his speed.

Having some property to sell in Kansas City, he obtained a ten-day leave of absence, grabbed a rattler Wednesday for old K. C., arrived in time for breakfast at home, closed the deal, ate dinner, said "Good-bye and good-night" to the folks and got back here in time to go to work last Saturday morning.

Of course, that trip is nothing for a traveling salesman, but it is traveling some on the part of a week end" tourist.

Miss Margaret Boal, The News Thanks You

Employes of The Glendale Evening News office walked through a bower of roses on the way to their respective desks on arrival at the office this morning, the flowers being the gift of Miss Margaret E. Boal, whose rose garden at her home, 1610 Rock Glen avenue, is one of the show places of the east end.

The roses are massive American Beauties and lend an atmosphere of delight and contentment to the many workers who sit busily in their midst throughout the day.

It is the desire of the staff of the newspaper to extend thanks to Miss Boal for her splendid gift.

Paul Hutchinson In Oratorical Contest

Glendale High school will compete in the Southern California Interscholastic Oratorical contest to be held at the Los Angeles High school June 2. The contest is held every year to determine which high school in the southland is the alma mater of the most eloquent orator.

Glendale will be ably represented this year by Paul Hutchinson, who won the annual interclass oratorical contest at the High school on May 5. He will deliver the same oration that won the local contest, "The Trend of Civilization." Those who have heard him deliver his oration predict that Glendale has an excellent chance to win the championship this year.

A gold medal is presented to the winner of the contest and a silver cup to the school winning the honors. However, this cup is held only for one year until the following contest if another school wins, but will belong permanently to the school which wins it three times. Glendale has won the cup twice. In 1918, Clarence Ralston won and in 1920, Jack Jenkins brought the honors to the school. So, if Glendale is successful this year, the silver cup will belong to the school permanently.

The student body is supporting Hutchinson loyally and are wishing wholeheartedly for his success. They will attend the contest in a large body.

Stanley Livingston Given Essay Prize

Remember how big a quarter looked when you were a kid? Well, a dollar now-a-days doesn't look quite so big but $5 almost fills the bill.

Stanley Livingston, son of Mrs. Addie Livingston of 602 North Orange street, has just received a $5 bill and a bronze medal for winning third prize in a state essay contest on the subject of "Safety-First." He is a pupil of Miss Vera Sinclair's composition classes at the Intermediate school.

Puzzle: Who Gets Better of Trade? Time May Answer

Mayor Spencer Robinson bought a pony for $4.

At least, that is what he says—and there is no reason to doubt his honor's word.

Then he priced it at $50 with a view of making a trade, which he did yesterday morning.

An Eagle Rock man gave him fourteen laying leghorn hens and a rooster to boot.

When he asked for the halter to lead the animal away, the mayor gave him a rope, a regular "hoss trader's" trick.

"Wait 'till he finds out that pony is auto shy and blind in one eye," his honor confided to members of the Glendale Realty board yesterday noon.

"Wait till Robinson's neighbors hear the early morning noise that rooster can make," says the Eagle Rock man.

Child Lost; Frantic Search; Happy End

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Garretson of 116½ Olive street, went to Ocean Park Sunday, accompanied by their two small daughters, Jean and Winifred, and Irene and Georgia Anderson, daughters of Mrs. Allie Anderson of 1125 East California street, anticipating a pleasant outing for the party and experienced instead a few hours of excitement and distress. During the afternoon, they strolled away from the bath house to enjoy a rest on the strand, when they discovered that one of their children had completely disappeared. A very rough high tide was coming in and after searching from Ocean Park to Venice and finding no trace of her, they were forced to the conclusion that she had wandered under the end of the pier, had been caught by a wave and carried out by the tide. Mr. Garretson lost no time in ringing the gong that summoned the life crew and the search became tragic in its excitement and suspense. A large crowd had assembled, when little Miss Jean appeared as suddenly as she had disappeared, wondering what it was all about. She had wandered off picking up shells, all unconscious of the trouble she had caused.

War Mothers Plan for Glendale Night

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Lester Myer chapter of the War Mothers of America took place yesterday afternoon at the American Legion hall with Mrs. J. B. Sherwood, president of the organization, in charge. The principal business was that of making plans for the staging of "Glendale night" of the state convention, which will take place on Friday night, June 16.

The present plans, according to Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, chairman of the committee on arrangements, is to conduct an automobile tour over the city in the early part of the evening and afterward to conduct a special entertainment and gathering in the Chamber of Commerce hall. A detailed announcement of the program will be announced within the next few days.

George Lowe, Antelope Valley Resident, Is Bitten On His Arm by Rattlesnake

This is a season of snakes.

George Lowe, a resident of the Antelope valley, is in Dr. Savage's hospital at Lancaster suffering from rattlesnake bite in the arm.

Word of the accident was telephoned to the Los Angeles county sheriff's office with the request that Deputy Sheriff Lowe of Long Beach be notified of his brother's condition.

Undoubtedly the prevalence of snakes this year will give good excuse to many Glendale campers and fishermen to take some high powered remedy with them.

All of which reminds one that a noticeable shortage in the original snake cure has caused numerous substitutes to be manufactured. And the bootleg cure is worse than the bite!

High School Stars Ready for Contest

By JAMES L. KIGALLEN
For International News Service.

CHICAGO, May 25. — Stagg field, scene of many historic college competitions, today presented the animated picture of scores of eager high school athletes, the stars of the country, going through their paces in preparation for the great national interscholastic meet Saturday.

They are here from twenty-eight states—bronzed, clear-eyed, clean-limbed youths, every mother's son of them ready for the signal to "go."

There are nearly 1,000 of them, representing 125 high schools and 18 academies. They carry the colors of schools from Maryland to California. Forty-nine schools in Illinois, fifteen from Indiana, eleven from Oklahoma, eight from Iowa, four apiece from the states of California, Nebraska and Missouri, three each from Kentucky, Kansas and Montana, and so on down to the lone entrants from Colorado and West Virginia. All of the young athletes come with strong local reputations. "Bud" Houser of Oxnard, Calif., in a recent meet put the 12-pound shot 56 feet 1 inch; Captain Richardson of the Culver, (Indiana) military academy, has done the 440-yard dash in 51 4-5 seconds; Irwin, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, claims the phenomenal time of 4 minutes 30 seconds for the mile run; Bagby of Pine Bluff, Ark., has made the 100-yard dash in 10 flat, and so on.

In practice Houser, pride of the Californians, electrified a large crowd at Stagg field by putting the 16-pound shot 47 feet 3 inches, breaking the conference record. Also he hurled the 12-pound shot 55 feet 7 inches.

These young chaps, arriving on every train, are real athletes and a wholesale smashing of records is predicted. Manual training high school of Kansas City, winners of last year's meet, will be represented by a strong team of four men of known ability. Washington high school of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which won the Ames interscholastic and three relays at Drake this year, has sent 16 men.

Clifford Durant In Tuneup for Classic

By BARNEY OLDFIELD
For International News Service.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 25.—Zip! Zip! goes another hundred thousand dollars!

This expresses the effort of Clifford Durant, millionaire in his own name, and son of the multi-millionaire manufacturer, in trying to win the Indianapolis 500-mile race next Tuesday.

Young Durant turned speed bug several years ago and has tried three times to win the great motor classic. So far he has failed and his attempts have cost him about $200,000.

This year he has outdone all previous efforts and his bill, win or lose, will be a cool hundred thousand dollars. He says he will count the cost small if he can win.

Durant has the nerve and ability to whip speed out of any car, but ill-luck has hovered in his path heretofore.

He arrived here last week with a car that is the fastest thing shown on the track to date. This car averaged 155 miles an hour for fifty miles in an actual race in California and is as ready for the long grind as it is possible to make it.

I've watched young Durant drive many a race and I believe his chances better this year than ever before. It looks as if Cliff's hundred thousand has been spent in such a manner as to make possible the achievement of his ambition.

But win or lose, Cliff will laugh. To most of us a hundred thousand is an awful lot of money to spend trying to win one race.

Wilbur Hubbell Is Hurt by Line Drive

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—Wilbur Hubbell, right-handed Philadelphia pitcher, was knocked out and possibly seriously injured today by a line drive from Tom Griffith's bat in the first inning.

Johnson had doubled to center with one out when Griffith, a left-hander, hit a ball with all his might on a dead line for Hubbell's head. Hubbell threw up his arm, but too late, and the ball struck him on the left side of the head.

He stood for a moment with his hand to his left eye, then gradually crumpled up before any of the players could reach him. He was carried to the club house on a stretcher.

SAYS U. S. SHOULD LEAD

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The United States might properly take the leadership in calling an international conference to discuss world tariff problems with a view to establishing equality of treatment for all countries, W. C. Culbertson, of the tariff commission, declared in an address before the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Tagging All Bases

Once again a home run from the bat of a pinch hitter upset the Athletics. This time the big punch was supplied by Flagstead in the eighth, tying the score, and then singles by Blue and Bassler gave the Tigers a victory. Harry Heielman smote homers on his first two appearances at the plate, while Bing Miller went hitless for the first time in fifteen games.

The Phils have hit their stride at last. Aided by the indifferent pitching of Jimmy Ring, they dropped their fourth straight to the Pirates yesterday.

Sam Rice's homer into the right field stands with Harris aboard in the seventh gave the Senators a 5 to 3 edge over the Yanks in the first game of the series, Walter Johnson turning in the victory. Twice Babe Ruth came to the plate with the bases filled and failed to deliver.

With Tris Speaker confined to his room with a heavy cold, the Indians squandered a ball game to the Red Sox, slow thinking by the Indian infield being a deciding factor. "Rip" Collins was profligate with passes, issuing seven in all, but was effective at critical moments.

This Couple Living Rather Wild Life

By CARL A. SUTTER
For International News Service.

HOWE BROOK, Maine, May 25.—Carl A. Sutter and his wife, the modern Adam and Eve, who entered the Maine wilderness on Saturday, to live for one month as close to nature as human begins can get, emerged for a few minutes today to tell their adventures.

Both wore birch bark suits, lashed together with vines, but they had failed to protect the flesh and their bodies were lacerated by thorns. They were pale, haggard and somewhat exhausted but said they were "game" and would continue their adventure.

"When we entered the woods it began to rain and my wife was soon chilled through," said Sutter. "I knew that shelter was the first requisite, so I built a lean-to with branches and spruce boughs. When it was done it was not exactly the kind of love nest one reads about in novels, but it was comfortable."

Sutter said the ground was covered with deer tracks. Both Sutter and his wife wore nothing when they entered the wilderness, nor did they carry weapons or utensils of any kind. They wanted a taste of real primitive life and they are getting it.

Sutter started a fire by rubbing a dry stick rapidly against a wet one. Finally a spark flew into a handful of birch shreds and a blaze sprang up. It required only half an hour's time to start it.

"I made snares and waited patiently for some wild animal to come along, but none was caught," continued "Adam." "Night fell rapidly and we had nothing to eat but roots and bits of green stuff and our stomachs were pretty empty.

"I could hear wild animals prowling around and was afraid to go to sleep, but finally I dozed off and was awakened by an unearthly scream. It was my wife who had awakened out of a nightmare during which she thought she was being eaten by a wild animal."

On Sunday the Sutters took an early morning plunge in the stream and then made a breakfast of lily roots.

Between two evils many of us choose both.

Mrs. Clarence O. Smith of 312 North Kenwood street is entertaining her aunt, Mrs. George McHaffey, of Richland Center, Wisconsin. Mrs. McHaffey has been spending the winter in Sawtelle and is leaving for her home in the east next week.

Mrs. George A. Mitchell of 206 West Maple street has returned to her home after spending three months in New York City. She was accompanied here by her sister, Mrs. M. F. Chenoweth and daughter Betty, of Columbus, O., and cousin, Miss Ruth Wildermuth.

George W. Pittock, who is stopping at Hotel Hayward, Los Angeles, was a caller at the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday. He hails from Oregon, Arizona and other states. Sam McPhuron of Washington, D. C., also registered, as did Frank B. Rodger of Milwaukee, Wis.

A jolly family group will motor to San Bernardino next Sunday to visit relatives. In the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin and his brother Clinton and wife. They will visit John Wessendorf, who is a railroad man of that place. The Austins reside in East Maple avenue.

Mrs. Gladys M. Happ and her mother, Mrs. J. Gresson, formerly of Redlands, have taken a house in 221 East Acacia avenue to be near their father and husband, who is confined in the hospital here. However, it is anticipated by the newcomers that they will remain in Glendale.

On Monday night of this week Rev. W. E. Edmonds was the principal speaker at the Men's Brotherhood of the Highland Park Presbyterian church. On this occasion the new building campaign was launched and Rev. Edmonds explained fully the building campaign plans of the Glendale Presbyterian church.

The lure of Glendale was too much for M. J. McGrew, who formerly conducted an automobile business in 437 East Broadway and who left here months ago for San Diego and later went to Nebraska. Mr. McGrew has returned here and has taken up a temporary residence pending selection of a permanent home.

Glendale has another Boston family within its corporate limits in Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baird, who recently moved into their new home in 617½ North Brand boulevard. Mr. Baird hails from the territory that boasts of the center of shoe manufacturing and recently has taken a position with a Los Angeles concern, and he delights in being able to reside in Glendale.

A "Nutty Social" will be held Friday night in the parlors of the Tropico Presbyterian church. Comical games are being planned and the intention has been announced to make the occasion as humorous as possible. John Server of 1635 Gardena avenue is president of the society. The committee in charge of the social consists of Miss Norma Wallace, Miss Dorothy Thompson and Miss Helena Richardson.

Chautauqua Will Open Tonight With Plenty of Thrills Upon Program

Sh! Spooks! You bet—and they'll appear right before your eyes when Paul Fleming summons 'em from ethereal realms to dance about on the Chautauqua stage! With his company of three persons, Mr. Fleming will present the finest and most elaborate program of magic ever seen on the Chautauqua platform. It's a program that will be remembered and discussed for weeks.

The "big tent" at Orange and Harvard streets is up and the first chautauqua program will be given tonight by Paul Fleming, noted magician. Those who attended the chautauqua last year and friends who have become enthused over the praise given the season's performance are anxiously awaiting the first appearance and it is anticipated that last year's record attendance will be exceeded.

This evening's program opens at 8 o'clock and is titled "An Evening of Magic" by Paul Fleming and company. It will include mental phenomena, East Indian magic, spirit materialization, etc. Spooks will appear from ethereal realms to dance on the chautauqua stage. It might be well to state the whole thing is accomplished by trickery, but they will be there just the same.

The program tomorrow afternoon will open at 2:30 o'clock with an artists' prelude by the Stearns-Hellekson trio, with a lecture-demonstration at 3 o'clock on "Danger Signals on the Road to Health," by Edna Eugenia Lowe.

Department Blocks Inquiry, Asserted

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Documents purporting to show that the department had "persistently opposed" investigation of war contract frauds, were produced in the senate by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, in continuing his demand for prosecution of war grafters and profiteers.

Caraway named former Secretary of War Baker as well as Secretary of War Weeks, declaring he "would not attempt to protect any Democrat found guilty of misusihg his office." He charged detectives were trailing senators, "prying into their homes and opening their mail."

GANG WARFARE RESUMED

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—Organized gang warfare broke out again in St. Louis streets when three men, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun and two armed with pistols, fired a fusillade into the plumbing shop of William P. Colbeck. After emptying their weapons into the store the gunmen fled in a waiting automobile.

One day service on kodak films now is given by Welch's Broadway confectionery at 604 East Broadway, it is announced, and a line of kodaks and supplies will be kept in stock. A fine line of stationery and novelties, also, has been received, according to W. W. Welch, the proprietor. The Glendae Ice Cream company supplies this store and special attention is being given to packed orders, delivered at parties, etc. Sierra Club beverages are served at the fountain.

Mr. Welch also is giving special attention to picnic supplies with a full line of package goods for quick lunches. Hot lunches are served at noon. Novelties for the kiddies are a feature of the stock and great care is taken in pleasing the young customers "for they soon grow up," comments this enterprising merchant.

Soviet Government Approves Delegation

By GEORGE POPOFF
For International News Service.

MOSCOW, May 24.—(Via London, May 25).—The Moscow soviet government today adopted a resolution approving the course of the Russian delegates in the international economic conference at Genoa.

The soviet adopted a resolution which said in part:

"Our delegation at Genoa acted correctly in the interests of the toiling masses in rejecting attempts by foreign powers to reestablish private property in Russia under control of foreign capitalists."

This resolution was interpreted to mean that the Russian government will not abolish the principle of nationalization of property.

Soviet officials declared that the break-up of the Genoa conference was due to "selfish interests of a small clique of the world's richest men."

The soviet adopted another resolution appealing "to the toilers of the world to take the issues of peace and the restoration of stable economic conditions into their own hands."

Real Bonded Booze No More, Declared

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 25.—Prohibition has become so effective, Roy A. Haynes, United States prohibition commissioner, declared here today, that it is almost impossible for the drinker to obtain anything but "poisonous, doctored stuff."

The federal dry law is being enforced with greater success than was ever conceived possible within thirty months, he told the Wisconsin law enforcement convention.

"The real bonded liquor is almost impossible to obtain," he declared.

Editors and cartoonists who reflect public opinion have changed their attitude toward prohibition and are almost unanimously back of law enforcement, he asserted.

"Nothing can affront the American people more than the statement that we cannot enforce our own laws," he declared.

ROTARY CLUB MEETING

The Rotary Club held a second 100 per cent meeting of the month at the Chamber of Commerce banquet hall this noon.

EDWARD RADKE'S JEWELRY STORE OPENS SOON

Formal Opening Will Take Place This Saturday at 109 South Brand

Formal opening of Edward N. Radke's Gift Shop at 109½ South Brand boulevard will take place Saturday, May 27, it is announced. Mr. Radke already has become a resident of Glendale, having taken the home at the corner of Doran street and Columbus avenue, joined the Chamber of Commerce and otherwise identified himself with the city.

Coming from a family of jewelers, this new merchant, who has been busy for the last six weeks assembling a stock, believes he has the most complete stock in Glendale of the articles in his line that patrons may desire.

Mr. Radke has been a practicing optician for many years and will conduct a complete optical department in connection with the jewelry business. Incidentally, he graduated from a Chicago school for opticians in 1887 and since then has made a constant study of the latest methods of improving the sight.

He invites Glendale people to visit his model establishment and get acquainted and he will be glad to greet again any friends who happened to know him at Marysville and San Francisco, where the Radke family is well known for its proficiency in the jewelry business.

Numerical Directory Big Business Help

"I don't see why the telephone company does not have a section in their directory so the subscriber could find by number the party they are phoning." That is the query you hear many times over, yet the phone company seems to think that such an addition is not necessary.

It will not be long before the citizens of Glendale will have just that kind of a numerical directory in conjunction with the Classified Business Directory, which is now being compiled at this office. For the tourist or stranger to this city this directory gives them a brief resume of Glendale, the city of homes. The people who live here like to know who their leading and representative merchants are; these also are given with their name, address and the business engaged in. Last, but not least, is the numerical directory which is known as the original Mr. Time Saver.

Merchants can have their name inserted by calling Glendale 2266, or asking for the directory man at The News office. These books are to be given a free distribution throughout Glendale, so that everybody will soon have the much needed necessity.

Says Young People Should Aid In Work

Many young people are "kidding themselves" into thinking that they are Christians, merely because they happen to be born in Christian homes, according to Rev. Robert C. McQuilkin of Philadelphia, who is director of a young people's conference this week at the Presbyterian church.

"The needs of the world with 800,000,000 people, who have never heard the gospel of Jesus Christ," remarked Rev. McQuilkin, "should present a call to young people to get away from superficial and selfish thinking and give their lives into the control of Jesus Christ."

"Surrender and Faith for Victory," was the subject of last night's prayer meeting in which the young people joined. Rev. McQuilkin stated that surrender to Christ did not mean a life of passivity, but a life of real activity.

"Every man or woman is either living their life under their own management or under the control of Jesus Christ," he asserted. "Those, who are not Christian, are living as though there was no God, as though Jesus Christ had never died on the cross."

Report Twenty Cases Of Bigamy, Claim

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Twenty cases in which are named persons said to have committed bigamy by marrying before their interlocutory decree of divorce had become final have been reported to the district attorney's office since the arrest of Rodolph Valentino, film star, on a bigamy charge following his marriage in Mexico to Winifred Hudnut, it was learned today.

While the cases are under investigation no action will be taken until the Valentino case has been settled in court, District Attorney Woolwine announced. In the Valentino case the law under which he was charged with bigamy and by which the twenty others face prosecution will be thoroughly tested.

KLAN OFFERING REWARD

SACRAMENTO, May 25.—Sheriff Ellis Jones has received a letter purporting to come from the Ku Klux Klan offering a reward of $500 for the arrest of anyone perpetrating acts of violence under the guise of klansmen. The letter, written on Klan stationary, stated reports had been received that an organization opposed to the "invisible empire" intended to throw suspicion on the klan by committing outrages here while in Klan regalia.

MYSTERY ACT BY MENTAL WIZARD AT T. D. & L.

Rex, Hindu Seer, Offers a Strange, Puzzling Show at Theatre Tonight

When Rex, the "mental wizard," appears at the T. D. & L. theatre tonight local people will have an opportunity to witness one of the most scientific and puzzling acts that has ever played here, it is declared.

Rex is a Hindu seer and crystal gazer, one of the leading exponents of that little known art which has been practiced since time immemorial by the Yegis, wise men, soothsayers and astrologers of the far east. Through constant study, Rex has brought himself to a point of mentality where he is able to read the thoughts of others, he claims. Here he will present a twentieth century mystery which has baffled scientists all over the country. He will read and answer questions written by those in the audience after the questions have been placed upon a table before their eyes.

Mystifying Novelty

It has been said there is nothing new under the sun. Perhaps that statement is true, but Rex and his company of five people will present an act that will, at least, be a novelty to the patrons of this popular theatre. The act is elaborately staged and costumed.

Rex invites those who are skeptical as to the possibility of thought transference, to submit their questions to him. To each, provided they are sensible, he will give careful consideration and a courteous reply.

As his engagement here is short, those who are interested should attend the opening performance. In addition to "Rex," the greatest art of its kind in America, and which Manager Ralph Allan has brought to Glendale at a big expense for the entertainment of his many patrons, the Thomas Meighan Paramount picture, "The Bachelor Daddy," the talk of the town, will be presented for the last time. No advance in prices is Allan's slogan.

Charles B. Guthrie Unites Two Tracts

Charles B. Guthrie, real estate operator who maintains offices in Los Angeles, Glendale and Eagle Rock with headquarters at 103½ South Brand boulevard, announces that he has united tracts numbered 4591 and 5123, known as Tenth and Western and Tenth and Thompson, and hereafter they will be called West Kenneth Square, as it is planned to extend Kenneth road through to this desirable residential property in the northwest section of Glendale.

Only recently Mr. Guthrie has named Robert S. Henry, an experienced operator who had charge of thirty offices in Canada, to be salesmanager, as the former desires to devote more time to several large development enterprises.

Gladys Walton, Granted Separation, Is Not to Marry in Mexico, She Declares

GLADYS WALTON

Granted a divorce in Los Angeles yesterday, and who, so she told the judge, will not marry in Mexico as have some other film stars.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Charging cruelty, non-support, and neglect, Gladys Walton, film star, known in private life as Mrs. Gladys Liddell, appeared before Judge Summerfield seeking a divorce from her husband, Frank R. Liddell, Jr., with whom she lived but fourteen months.

Miss Walton alleged that because of her husband's alleged idleness that she was compelled to forego many of the diversions and social pleasures accompanying a woman from her station in life.

She was forced to remain away from social functions and could not advance socially, nor maintain a social standing and was often caused humiliation and embarrassment on account of her husband's refusal to engage in some occupation, it was alleged.

F. Schorndorfer and Mrs. Ida Mayer, mother of Miss Walton, corroborated the latter's evidence.

When Judge Summerfield granted her a decree, he said with a smile:

"You are not going into Mexico and get married again, are you?"

"Never that," was the reply with just a suspicion of tears in her voice.

Seventh Grade In Baseball Schedule

At the Intermediate school the seventh grade inter-class indoor baseball schedule is now in full swing with games taking place daily at the noon hour.

With the schedule half completed, the Eagles, with Jo Huesman, captain, and Miss Margaret Sharp, manager, with 60 points to their credit, and no games lost, are safely in the lead.

Next in line are the Jackrabbits, with Allen Lovell, captain, and Miss Gladys Sharpe, manager, with 30 points.

The Tigers, with Lee Rombaugh, captain, and Mrs. Lytle manager, have 20 points.

The Cubs, with Melville Walker, captain, and Miss Carrol Duncan, manager, have ten points. Twelve more games will complete the schedule.

New Columbia Six to Be Shown Here

Enthusiastic motorists of Glendale will be given their first opportunity to view the new light six Columbia automobile on Thursday night and Friday morning of this week at the show rooms of the J. C. Pollock & Co. agency, 208-210 West Broadway, who have been appointed local distributors for this car which is rapidly making a name for itself.

This particular model was shipped by express from the factory in Detroit and is the only one on the Pacific coast at the present time. It is claimed to be the lowest priced six-cylinder car on the market today and certainly it has created a sensation wherever shown. This is due to the standard units which are used in its construction.

The Columbia Motors company have been building a high class six-cylinder car for the past six years and with a $250,000,000 corporation back of it, there is every reason to believe it will meet with successful sales in Glendale, according to Mr. Pollock.

Glendale Bootery Carries Varied Stock

Inasmuch as the front speaks for itself, something must be said of the interior of the Glendale Bootery, 221 North Brand boulevard, another model establishment which opened last Saturday. R. E. Brown of Seattle, Wash., has come here to manage the corporation conducting the store.

Mr. Brown is better known in Everett, Wash., where he was in the shoe business for fifteen years. He knows the various lines and intends carrying a stock sufficiently complete to fit any person. A complete line for the children will be featured and Mr. Brown will take especial care in fitting the kiddies.

The I. Miller shoes for ladies, manufactured at Brooklyn, also will be featured as will other high class eastern lines for both men and women.

SHE ASKS FOR $40,000

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Coming as an aftermath to a small town romance, Miss Helen Frazier filed suit in the superior court for $40,000 heart balm against Archie N. Vance, formerly a prominent figure in Illinois politics, now a wealthy apartment house owner of this city.

Both Miss Frazier and Vance formerly lived in Paris, Ill., where the latter for many years was county treasurer and a representative in the state legislature.

Oakland Car Wins Sweepstakes Cup

"Oakland wins!" When Green & McClellan of 115 West Harvard street heard that an Oakland touring car won the sweepstakes cup for the best all around performance against all entries in the sixth annual Los Angeles-Camp Curry economy run last week-end, they were more enthusiastic than ever over the sturdy automobile for which they are local agents.

Max Green says he is going to get full details of the trip to tell the people of Glendale, for the Oakland is deserving of great credit when pitted against all makes of cars.

HARDING SEEKING FRIENDLY AID OF BIG BUSINESS

President and Leaders Meet at Social Dinners and Discuss 'Outlook'

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, May 25. — President Harding and his cabinet advisers have embarked on a systematic campaign to attempt to secure through friendly social intercourse with "big business" the things that would lead to costly limitation and bitter feeling if attempted through the more spectacular and drastic means of legislation and law.

This was the frank explanation advanced by the president's advisers today for the series of White House dinners to industrial magnates and the conferences which members of his cabinet are holding in Washington with leaders in various enterprises.

It is a further step, administration spokesmen said, in Mr. Harding's preaching of "the gospel of understanding," to which he referred to often during his campaign for the presidency.

Peaceful Penetration

"You might call it a peaceful penetration of big business by the government," one cabinet officer said.

The president's dinner to forty-one steel magnates at the White House Thursday night resulting in an informal understanding being reached for the ending of the twelve-hour day in the steel industry, was one notable step in the general plan, it was said.

Friday night another step was taken at the White House at another dinner. President Harding addressed a score of leading railroad presidents and directors and to them he made an appeal for co-operation in a drive to decrease freight rates.

High freight rates have been the most consistently advanced cause for the general business "depresison."

It has been further felt by President Harding and his advisers that "a restoration of confidence" in the basic industries of the United States is necessary before there can be any return to the "general prosperity" so often referred to.

Three Key Industries

The basic industries of the United States are steel, transportation and coal. Thus, in a single week, the administration has had the leaders of all these three key industries in Washington for conferences and the conferences have been made the vehicle for remedial suggestions, both on the part of business and the government.

That there is a political aspect to the administration's program is not denied. It is realized that one of the chief campaign arguments to be used by the Democrats in this fall congressional campaign is "bad times."

The Democrats will charge that the "return to prosperity" promised by the Republicans in 1920 has not been accomplished.

Therefore, Republican candidates and spokesmen everywhere are going to bear heavily in coming months on the general theme that the depression is ended and that the famous "general prosperity" is standing on the country's threshold.

President Harding himself sounded this optimistic note in addressing the thousands of business men attending the convention of the chamber of commerce here Thursday night.

Questions on Radio and Their Answers

Question: What make of crystal detector do you consider the best for the money?—M. J. B., Glendale.

Answer: My dear boy, this is about the only kind of a question that is barred in this column, but any of the standard makes are guaranteed to do what is claimed for them by the makers.

Question: What station is K. F. S. and where is it located?—E. G. H., Glendale.

Answer: This is the marine station of The Federal Telegraph company and is located in San Francisco.

Patriotic Citizens Urged to Give Aid

The Glendale Evening News is requested to publish the following self-explanatory appeal to the public:

To the Citizens of Glendale—With the approach of Memorial day with its sacred memories, the thought is borne to us that it would be eminently proper at this time to call upon all patriotic citizens to aid in the proper observance of this day, to the end that sports, games and festivities be discountenanced and discouraged.

A realization of the solemnity and dignity of the occasion is besought from all citizens that due honor may be paid to the memories of the departed heroes whose sacrifices have won the respect of the nation and the admiration of the world.

Some Hop Here! Funny Frog Tale

By GEORGE VAN SANDS
Radio Editor The Evening News

One of our readers who signs himself "Ampere Hysteresia Inductance" and says he has been reading our "sparkling radio page" for some time, submits the following: "A radio station in the western outskirts of Los Angeles was very much troubled with interference from frogs.

"Very strange, you say, but let me explain this station was using a Poulsen or De Forest arc, and as the electrodes were cooled by water, the escaping water made quite a pool outside the operating shack. The frogs made home sweet home of this place and as the company experts ran the ground connection into this puddle the frogs grew large, strong and loud on the effects of the radio waves, the high frequency waves, creating a high frequency croak.

"Other frogs, noting the size and prosperity of this colony, decided to move in, and they in turn added their voices to the chorus. The operators had to keep clubs handy to beat a tattoo upon the sides of the shack to silence the "interference," whereupon the company's efficiency expert decided that, as so much valuable time was being lost and the operators were so often required to neglect their duties chasing frogs, the reception apparatus should be installed in the downtown office of the company."

Some frog story, but, at that, there is little doubt but that this story is based upon absolute fact, and, if you question it, start digging around your ground connection, and you will find worms of a much larger size than you will find anywhere else in the near vicinity. Go down to the shipyards and in the drydocks you will find ships having the sea barnacles and other marine growth being scraped off, and invariably you will find that the ship having a wireless set aboard will have these sea barnacles of almost twice the size of those on a ship that has no wireless. This goes to prove what I was trying to tell you last week, that radio is not only a great source of entertainment, but that, if you will get a wireless set in your homes, your general health will almost immediately show a marked improvement, and it would not surprise me a bit to shortly be reading advertisements in the newspapers something on this order:

"I was in a run-down condition, and seven doctors had given me up. I had tried everything, but kept getting worse, when one of my neighbors recommended the X Y Z home radio set, and after taking only a short course of listening-in treatments, I noted remarkable improvement, and today I am the picture of health and feel twenty years younger."

Side play and the improper seating of the valve stems will cause a knock.

NEW APPARATUS AND DEVICES

A COMPLETE V. T. DETECTOR UNIT

There are many radio experimenters who require a complete vacuum tube detector unit so arranged that it can be used in a circuit laid out for testing. The unit illustrated appears to be well suited to such a purpose, and, when desired, can also be mounted within a cabinet. Two screws only are necessary for cabinet mounting. The unit is complete with tube socket, filament rheostat, mica dielectric grid condenser and a mica dielectric by-pass condenser for shunting across the plate battery and head telephones when required.

As shown in the illustration, the rheostat is very simple in construction, the coiled resistance wire being supported on the edge of a circular piece of insulating material. The edge of the circular piece is grooved so that the coil cannot slip out of place.

Each binding post for the plate, grid and filament connections is plainly marked so that wiring may be done quickly. A rheostat knob is provided, and a dial may be easily attached when desired for panel mounting.

An amplifier unit is also made, which is quite similar to the detector unit, except for the addition of a shell type amplifying transformer. In this unit the transformer is mounted directly behind the tube socket on the same shelf.

RADIO EXPLAINED

THE REASON FOR HIGH RESISTANCE RECEIVERS

Those who have purchased head telephone receivers or who have contemplated doing so have probably wondered why the high resistance phones were considered more sensitive than those of low resistance. As a first thought it would appear that high resistance is the very thing that should be avoided. The pull on a receiver diaphragm depends upon the strength of the magnetism at the poles (or ends) of the magnets. This magnetic strength, or pulling power, depends upon the current flowing through the magnet windings and the number of turns of wire in the winding. Usualiy the current passing through the widings is very weak, and not much pulling power would be produced if only a comparatively few turns of low resistance wire were used. A large number of turns of low resistance wire would occupy more space than would be conveniently available because the low resistance wire would necessarily have comparatively large diameter. If finer wire, say around 40, were used, considerably more turns could be wound upon a moderate size bobbin. And it is a large number of wire turns which is necessary, since the current is very weak. But the more turns which are wound on the bobbins the higher the resistance of the magnet windings. So high resistance windings mean more sensitive receivers, not so much because of the resistance itself but because of the increased number of turns of wires. It will not do, therefore, to use wire of high resistance, such as German silver, and receivers wound with such wire are just about valueless. The wire should be copper of good conductivity.

It is often said that high resistance receivers should be used with high resistance detectors, such as crystals and vacuum tubes. This is because a high resistance detector cuts down the current strength and makes necessary, therefore, many turns of wire in the magnet windings to procure the required magnetic strength or pulling power. If a low resistance detector were used more current would flow in the circuit, other things being equal, and a lesser number of turns would be satisfactory.

The total production of electric power by public utility companies in the United States is 39,000,000,000 kilowatt hours a year.

SECTIONAL BATTLE IN SENATE ON AMENDMENT

Senator Johnson's Measure Causing Heavy Protests From Democrats

By WEBSTER K. NOLAN
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The proposed amendment to Article No. 10 of the American constitution has threatened to precipitate one of the bitterest sectional fights in the history of the senate.

It was north against south and east against west in a new fight over the basic principles of government as implied by the proposed amendment of Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Republican, California, for prohibiting exploitation of child labor.

Johnson warmly defended the legislation as necessary to protect children. He charged it was the duty of the national government to slightly invade state rights, when the issue of child welfare was raised.

Bitter condemnation came from Senator Lee S. Overman, Democrat of North Carolina, who branded the proposed amendment as a "clear attempt to wipe out state lines."

Claims of Opposition

From the opposing faction it was contended that the Johnson amendment would open the door to scores of similar amendments which ultimately would establish a paternalistic super-structure of federal government. It was pointed out that similar provisions could be added to the Johnson amendment which would give congress authority to legislate anti-lynching laws, to invade state rights on public educational measures and finally to usurp police powers of the various states.

"It is true my proposed amendment to the constitution would affect the rights of states," said Johnson, "but it is unfortunately equally true that the object sought, salutary and necessary as it is, cannot be attained apparently under the decisions of the supreme court in any other way.

Present and Future

"Ordinarily I would not wish to invade the prerogatives of the states, but if the welfare of little children requires it, I would not for an instant hesitate."

The tenth article of the constitution reads:

"Section one: The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states, respectively, or to the people."

Johnson's amendment would add the proviso:

"Provided, however, that the congress shall have power to regulate or prohibit throughout the United States employment of children under 18 years of age.

Boy Scouts Hosts In Honor of Mothers

The Beaver Patrol of Troop 3, Boy Scouts, entertained their mothers Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eva Cunningham, 114 N. Orange street. Frank Ayars is scout master of that group; Glenn Cunningham is troop leader, Robert Ayars, assistant patrol leader; Lyman Bosserman, scribe. The members of the patrol are Edward Scheffer, Charles and Lyman Bosserman, Lynn Criswell, Charles Pratt, Robert Ayars, Gordon Bevans and Glenn Cunningham.

The regular patrol meeting was held in charge of Glenn Cunningham, and the scout oath, yells and drill were given. This was followed by a program, including selections by the patrol orchestra, saxophone and cornet duet by Lynn Criswell and Charles Pratt, original reading, "The Greatest Railroad in the World," by Charles Bosserman; piano solo, "March of the Boy Scouts," by Glen Cunningham; reading by Lynn Criswell, and stories and jokes by the members. At the close of the program the scout members served refreshments of ice cream and cake, assisted by Mrs. Ayars and Mrs. Cunningham.

D. of V. Gathering Plans for Memorial

The members of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, of which Mrs. Susie Peck is president, held a very interesting meeting Wednesday night in American Legion hall. C. A. Stuart and E. E. Harwood were obligated to membership at that time and Mrs. Alice Sheldon and Mrs. Margaret Hibbert were initiated into the Tent. An interesting report of the Riverside convention was read by Mrs. Dora Hall.

At last night's meeting final arrangements were made for the Decoration day services and a goodly contribution was received for the purchase of a banner appropriate for the Daughters of Veterans. At the close of the business session refreshments of coffee and cake were served. The members accepted an invitation to attend the next regular meeting of the Sons of Veterans.

The Nimble Finger club, composed of the tent's membership will meet June 5 at the home of Mrs. Agnes Richardson, 611 East Broadway.

One Dead, 3 Hurt In Crash; Jail One

SAN DIEGO, May 25. — One woman is dead, two others and a man seriously injured, and a fourth woman is under arrest today, as the result of a freak accident in which a woman driver became hysterical when a collision appeared imminent and stepped on the gas instead of the brake.

Mrs. Carmen Tagle, driving a large touring car, side-swiped the naval mail collecting motorcycle of Harry L. Scott on a downtown street. She became confused, lost control and her machine dashed down the sidewalk. Mrs. Mary Sanwick was struck and hung across the radiator as the car continued its flight.

Two other women were knocked down before the auto, with Mrs. Sanwick still clinging to the radiator, smashed into a brick store building, fatally crushing the already badly injured woman. It crashed through the wall of the store and finally halted.

Expert Horseman Is Dead; Horse Cause

PUEBLO, Colo., May 25.—After gaining world-wide renown as an expert horseman, William A. Baxter, old-time pal of the late Buffalo Bill, met his death today by being thrown from his horse near Undercliff, just south of this city.

Baxter was an expert rifle shot and traveled for years with the Buffalo Bill circus. He was believed to be the only man in the world who could sit on a horse at full gallop and with a small bore rifle shoot holes in glass balls thrown into the air.

Baxter's body was found by his brother, Price Baxter, after it had been dragged some distance after being thrown from the horse.

Baxter had been employed the past few years by the federal government as a hunter of predatory animals.

If the radiator hose connections are given a coating of shellac and then wrapped with tape, the danger of oil getting on the rubber will be diminished.

Starts First Attempt Round World Flight

By F. A. WRAY
For International News Service.

LONDON, May 25.—The first attempt to fly around the world was begun Wednesday when Major A. T. Blake hopped off at Croydon airdome in a DH-9 machine. Major Blake hopes to complete his epochal flight in ninety days, if successful, he expects to go down in history along with other great voyagers such as Columbus, Raleigh and Drake, and he is confident of success. The aviators took the air at 2:07 o'clock.

The signal to start was given by General Brancker, director of aviation.

The major is accompanied on his flight by Captain Norman MacMillan and Lieutenant Colonel L. E. Broome.

The HD-9 selected by Major Blake for the first flight is a three-seater.

"I expect to use the same plane all the way from London to Calcutta," Major Blake told International News before leaving. "The route lies over Paris, Rome, Athens, Crete, Alexandria, Bagdad, Basera, Karachi and Delhi. At Calcutta the machine will be exchanged for a Fairey-3 seaplane, fitted with a 360 horse power Rolls-Royce engine. In this machine we hope to fly via Rangoon and Hong Kong, thence to Japan and from Japan to Petro-Pavlosk, the Aleutian Islands, Alaska, and Vancouver. That will be the most difficult of the journey as we will have to encounter monsoon weather in Burma and fogs in the north Pacific.

"At Vancouver we shall pick up another three-seater DH-9 and travel in it via Winnipeg, Chicago, New York and Newfoundland.

"At St. Johns we shall transfer to an F-3 flying boat with two 360 horse power Rolls-Royce engines and complete the journey by way of Greenland, Iceland, the Faroe Islands, Scotland and back to London. We hope to complete the entire trip in about three months."

WANTS ACTION ON BILL

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Stirred by a delay of action on his bill to close loop-holes revealed in the corrupt practices act by the United States Supreme court decision in the Newberry case, representative Cable, republican, Ohio, moved in the house to discharge the house elections committee from further consideration of the bill. The adoption of this motion would have the effect of bringing the bill before the house for consideration on its merits.

TO REPRESENT U. S. NAVY

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Six destroyers of the Pacific fleet have been ordered to Portland to represent the navy there during the annual rose festival on June 7, 8, 9, Admiral Eberle, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, reported to the department.

Coast Naval Yards Hard Hit by Order

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—Orders have reached the twelfth naval district headquarters which will result in serious curtailment of the activities of Pacific coast naval yards.

The order directs the reduction by one-quarter of the personnel of all navy yards and it is estimated that this will mean a loss to the Pacific coast in payroll of at least $2,000,000 a year.

It was said that 1200 men would be affected at Mare Island navy yard by the order and 800 at the Puget Sound navy yard.

The reduction in working forces is to be made by July 1 and is the result of the reduced appropriations for naval work made by congress.

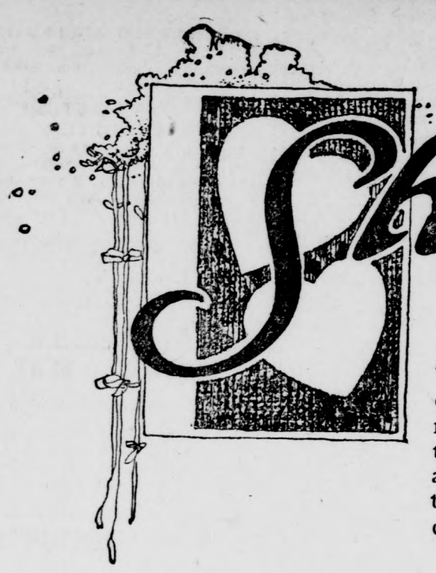
CITY EMPLOYES IN KLAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—District Attorney Matthew Brady today sent letters to the chief of police and chief of the fire department forwarding the names of members of their departments found in the list of Ku Klux Klan members seized in a raid on the Klan's headquarters in Los Angeles and transmitted to Brady by District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles.

The police included two sergeants, a corporal and six patrolmen. Three firemen were named. Brady also made public the names of five San Franciscans whose names appeared among those found in Los Angeles as kleagles or organizers for the klan.

JEALOUS WOMAN SHOOTS

She was arrested on a charge of shooting with intent to kill and was released on bond. Miss Frost is recovering at a hospital.



Shopping with the Bride

The Junetime bride comes into her own. It is wedding time and orange blossom time. So that her task may be easy—her prenuptial work reduced to the minimum—we are taking her on a tour of the leading stores of the city with the ease and comfort of a pleasurable shopping trip. Here she will be offered many practical, appropriate and valuable suggestions. Everything has been chosen with that enduring charm of distinction.

A Trip to the Photographer

Yes, she promised to stop
At our Photograph Shop,
And we'll certainly welcome our beauty.

Police Records Tell Most Amazing Story

CHICAGO, May 25.—Musty po- lice records were brought to light today and an amazing story of the career of Mrs. Emma Weir, "the million dollar lifter," was con- structed. Mrs. Weir and her in- separable companion, Mrs. Rickey Gunther, were found dead in the Weir home Monday.

Mrs. Weir, according to the po- lice, was known as "Big Emma" and for years was the directing head of one of the most notorious bands of shoplifters in Chicago. More than a dozen years ago it was estimated that the plunder taken by the band had aggregated more than $500,000. So daring and clever were "Big Emma's" methods, police say, that appre- hension of her or her associates was extremely difficult.

The police believe that "Big Emma's" career came to an end by suicide that followed murder. The body of Mrs. Gunther was bruised and bore evidence of violence. Mrs. Weir's body, with a gas tube in the mouth, was found in another room and be- tween this room and the room where Mrs. Gunther lay were sev- eral tightly closed doors.

Mrs. Gunther's daughter and neighbors of Mrs. Weir declare the two had quarreled after years of close friendship and that Mrs. Weir had promised to see that "we both go to sleep and never awaken."

Police Seek Slayer At Taylor Auction

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—They sold what was owned by William Desmond Taylor, whose murder is yet unsolved, at auction Tuesday.

As the loud-voiced auctioneer worked up the bids, police detec- tives stood behind him, studying the faces of the crowd of 500 men and women.

The detectives were there on a variation of the theory that a criminal is drawn back to the scene of his crime. They figured that the man who killed Taylor might be in the crowd, buying things this victim owned.

A framed photograph of Mary Pickford inscribed in her hand- writing, "To my nice director— William Desmond Taylor, the most patient man that I know. With sincere friendship, Mary Pickford," sold for $5.50.

A photograph of Mary Miles Minter, in an ornate frame, on which she wrote, "For William Desmond Taylor, artist, gentle- man—man! Sincere good wishes, Mary Miles Minter," sold for $3.50.

A leather-necked drayman in overalls bought Taylor's stock of hats.

SCRAPPING BILL PASSED

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The naval scrapping bill passed the house without objection or a rec- ord vote. It authorizes the presi- dent to scrap naval vessels under provisions of the armament con- ference treaty.

The bill provides for the con- version of two of the battleship cruisers, now about fifty per cent completed, but which will not be allowed to the navy under the treaty, into naval airplane car- riers. The cost of this conversion is placed at $32,000,000 for the two ships.

GENERAL STRIKE URGED

BERLIN, May 25.—The central executive committee of all the so- cialistic groups in Germany today called upon the German workers in the Rhineland and Westphalian districts to organize a general strike to be effective "the day the French march in to take full pos- session of the Ruhr basin."

ON CHILD EMPLOYMENT

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Op- ponents of child labor lost no time in taking steps to offset the effect of the supreme court's holding the existing child labor tax law uncon- stitutional.

Representative Fitzgerald, Re- publican, Idaho, introduced a res- olution in the house proposing an amendment to the constitution which would give congress the right to regulate the conditions surrounding the employment of children under 18 years old any- where in the United States.

Newspapers Can Aid In Cure of Cancer

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—"The newspapers can cure more cases of cancer by preaching the gospel of immediate examination and treatment than the doctors can by improving their present methods of treatment."

This was the startling assertion of Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood, pro- fessor of clinical surgery at Johns Hopkins University, and one of America's leading authorities on cancer, in an interview with the International News Service. Dr. Bloodgood is here to attend the annual convention of the Ameri- can Medical association.

"At present, the chief hope of decreasing the high percentage of cancer deaths depends more on the earlier application of present methods of treatment, rather than on further improving those meth- ods," declared Dr. Bloodgood.

"The X-ray and radium treat- ment are the only methods that offer any probability of cure or re- lief if the disease has progressed beyond operation. They must be given by a specialist."

IN FAVOR OF DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Al- though John J. Pialogiou, cigaret magnate of New York, has filed an appearance in the local supe- rior court to the divorce suit of his wife, known on the screen as Constance Talmadge, it was stated today that he will not contest the suit. The appearance filed was a legal formality to permit of his be- ing represented by counsel for the purpase of protecting his interests. It was stated also that a praperty settlement between the parties al- ready had been effected out of court. If any contest at all is filed, it will be merely a formal denial of the allegations of cruelty made by the wife, it was declared.

True Love Story Is Not Known, Hinted

By FRANK E. MASON
For International News Service.

PARIS, May 25.—"If the true story of my romance were ever known—"

Miss Mary Culberson, daughter of United States Senator Charles A. Culberson of Texas, whose heart affair with Alexander Rob- ertson, former British war vetera- an, got that young man into trou- ble, was speaking. But she got no further, for her chaperone, Miss Leslie Cameron, interfered.

Miss Culberson and her chape- rone have arrived in Paris from New York. They left the United States shortly after Robertson had made public the charge that an at- tempt was made to "railroad" him out of the United States because of his attachment for Miss Cul- berson, to whom he claimed to be engaged.

That chaperoning an American senator's daughter requires tact was evident.

Miss Culberson's words plus her mournful silence and plus pale- ness and a certain dejection, im- plied volumes. They seemed to say plainly:

"No one has yet learned the true story of my love adventure and I fear no trip to Europe can cure my heart bruises."

INSURGENTS WIN POINT

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Re- publican insurgents were able to score their first marked victory in the fight against the McCumber tariff bill on the floor of the sen- ate. The insurgents, backing the Democratic minority, forced Sen- ator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, to "pass over" the committee duty on barytes ore so that the senate finance commit- tee could take it under considera- tion again. McCumber indicated the committee would reduce the opposed duty.

Siberia Occupation Real Menace, Claim

By HARRY L. ROGERS
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The United States government will be extremely well pleased if Great Britain, through exertion of friendly pressure upon Japan, can bring about withdrawal of Japan- ese troops from Siberia, officials said today.

This government is firm in its attitude that Siberia should be evacuated "at the earliest possible moment," and this view is well known to the government, despite the fact that Secretary of State Hughes has not pressed the Jap- anese to name a definite date for withdrawal.

The reported move of Great Britain in making "friendly rep- resentations" to Japan came as a surprise to officials here.

No attempt has been made to conceal the fact that the Siberian occupation constitutes a real men- ace to good understanding in the far east and as the Anglo-Jap- anese alliance is still in effect, Great Britain, as a party to a pact designed to maintain the peace of the far east, is obviously in an unusually good position to make representations to Japan.

GROUCH CURED BY INTERNAL BATHS

Mr. Joseph A. Weis, Hotel Vendome, Washington, D. C., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York, as follows:

"On the 15th of June I purchased a 'J. B. L. Cascade.' The results it has produced are simply marvelous.

"For 20 years I used Cathartics, but have used nothing but the Cascade for almost a month. I feel like a new man. I want to be pleasant to everybody. Before I used the Cascade I was a grouch. Did not like anybody and could not be pleasant."

If you bathe internally with the "J. B. L. Cascade," you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. Poisonous waste in the lower intestine makes us blue, dull, bilious and nervous.

Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just antiseptic warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

will gladly explain to you the simple operation of the "J. B. L. Cascade," why it is so certain in its results, and will give you free of cost, an interesting little book containing the results of the experiences of Dr. Chas. A. Slogans for Future Work Brought Out; Dr. Nash Urges Fresh Zeal this coming year. Austria has anti-alcoholic movement. French medical men condemn alcohol as medicine. Many European universities are studying the alcoholic question. The liquor interests fear that Europe will go dry. They are starting a campaign against prohibition in the newspapers of Europe.

"The Bible in the Public Schools," by Jennie Ray Thompson: "Never in this generation has here been as keen an interest in the reading of God's Word. Addresses and discussions in all sorts of conventions show that men and women of many organizations are at least agitating the question of the reading of the Bible in the public schools. Seven states have made it obligatory, and in only one state is it positively forbidden.

Urges Bible in Schools

"In our own southern California one school has offered to dismiss the children one afternoon a week if the churches will arrange an adequate program of religious education. Let us see to it that we elect on our school boards men and women who will not forbid the reading of God's Word in our schools. Let us use influence with them to help in securing teachers who will be willing to read God's Word to the youth of our land. Let us so work until a knowledge of the Word of God shall be builded into the lives of the boys and girls of our land."

"Publicity," by Miss Mary M. Coman of Covina: "Peppy presentation of prominent purposes presents pertinent practical publicity for particular people posing as prohibitionists or anti-pros. So, per-ennially place pertinent pieces in prominent papers promising popular propaganda. Praise painstaking pen-pushers purposely and persistently promising practical patronage and popularizing publication."

"Christian Citizenship," the world's greatest need, by Mrs. Etta B. Taft, Sawtelle: "What this old world needs most of all is Christian citizenship. It is our greatest hope; our greatest need. The Good Book tells us we shall reap what we sow. The need of education along these lines grows more necessary every day. We should thank God from our hearts for the nineteenth amendment, regarding our citizenship as a public trust. It is up to us, the women who have the ballot, to accept the great and glorious responsibility that lies before us. 'A man-ordered world,' says Lady Astor, 'has failed. We should work together for real peace on earth and see to it that what we call Christian civilization is more than a name."

Study and Training

"Ballots, Not Bullets," by Mrs. Elizabeth Elson of Covina: "More and more the aims and purposes of all women's organizations are becoming similar, the stress being put increasingly on all constructive, educational and moral activities. Particularly in this great group of earnest women have the W. C. T. U. and the members of the federated clubs much in common.

More Closely Together

"If all good women everywhere would concentrate upon definite constructive work in any line almost any legislation could be successfully put over. We need to get together more closely in purpose and principle losing sight of petty methods and possible differences."

"Social Morality," by Helen M. Stoddardy of San Diego: "Purity of life represents the greatest reform the world will ever see. Parents should begin at the beginning by replying to the sex questions that all normal children ask in clear and truthful answers. Evasion and downright falsehoods by parents have had many a cruel harvest. The minds of the young people should be pre-empted by the good."

"Americanization," by Mrs. Lydia Carmack of Bell: "Almost all nationalities are among us, but our greatest problem is that of the Mexicans, Italians and Japanese. The Japanese population shifts cityward due to California's land law and the unjust, un-American propaganda against them. They must be made 100 per cent Americans."

Evangelistic Work

"The Power of Prayer," emphasizing the evangelistic work of the W. C. T. U., by Mrs. Mary M. Carnes of Ontario: "No one can study the life history of great Bible characters, who did much for the Kingdom, without feeling their power. The secret of their lives is like the secret of the Nile; they are the channels of unseen forces.

"There is knowledge enough within the Christian church of every land to convert the world if knowledge would do it. There must be fire from above to kindle our knowledge and ourselves before any of the needed results will come.

"Only as we tarry and receive the Master's promise of power can we live the lives He longs to have us live."

"The Southern California Home for Women," by Ada R. Hand of Claremont: "In the home family are thirty-five, some of whom have been there several years and speak with affection of our home. The annex now under construction will make it possible to admit some of the worthy applicants who are always waiting. The home needs your help by prayer and gifts."

There are several kinds of health insurance. One of them is a pair of good overshoes for every member of the family.

TOBACCO HABIT IS GIVEN SCORING BY SPEAKER

Great Problem of People Today, Claim; Miss Grace Mueller Winner

"The gigantic problem that confronts us today is the tobacco habit," asserted Winfred Martin Patch, student at the Pasadena University of the Nazarene church, last night at the First Methodist church before the delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention.

"Economically, socially and spiritually, it is the greatest evil of the land, but it can be eradicated by an earnest, systematic, energetic and united effort. The people must be educated and those desiring reform united and organized.

"During this past year the appalling sacrifice of $2,500,000,000 was made for this vicious and abnormal appetite. What is your opinion of a man that will puff dollars and dollars of smoke into the air and his hungry family stays home and the wife has not money enough to buy food for the babes? Conceive the increased doctor bills and the cost of alms houses and asylums that are the direct result of this vice. No wonder a cynical lady exclaimed, 'The more I see of men the more I admire dogs!'

Insulted, He Says

"Go into any large city and pass along the sidewalk. You are insulted on every hand by lustful men puffing smoke in your face. It is the tobacco user who makes the streets and sidewalks filthy with his vile expectorations. It is the tobacco user who fills the air with his foul stories. A tobacco chewer is a menace to the country. He should be branded with a skull and cross bones for he causes countless numbers of diseases.

"Tobacco destroys the health. Dr. M. Lauden of France says it is the appalling testimony of a college of physicians that 20,000 people died in this country annually from tobacco poison."

Grace Mueller Wins

Mr. Patch was introduced to the audience by Mrs. Hattie M. Doughty of Los Angeles, state secretary of the Young People's branch of the W. C. T. U.

The "Diamond Medal Contest" resulted in a victory for Grace Mueller of Redlands, who declaimed "The Power of the Law" by Laura LeManse. Other entrants in the contest were Mary Lewis, Redlands; Inga Carter and Lucille Harbauer, San Bernardino; and Richard Arbogast, Los Angeles.

On account of illness, Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts of 114 West Park avenue was unable to be present and sing. The solo by Mrs. J. A. Cole of 311 North Center street was much applauded. Mrs. Mary M. Haddow had charge of the oratorical contest.

Mae Murray Puts Pep In 'Fascination'

Mae Murray believes that jazz and dancing provide the "pep" that persons who are indoors a greater part of the day need. Miss Murray is herself a dancer of note, and was a star in Ziegfeld's Follies before she entered motion pictures. In her new Metro picture, "Fascination," presented by Robert Z. Leonard, which is now running at the Glendale Theatre, the popular star introduces a number of new dances.

"Jazz and dancing are twins for most of us, anyhow," says Miss Murray. "They may criticize jazz music as 'savage' and everything else, but the fact remains that it stirs something inside of you that makes you feel like dancing. It sorts of 'peps' you all up and makes you feel good."

Shirley Hitchcock, a dancer from the Pearl Keller school, is presenting the "Fascination Dance" as a prologue to the feature which critics agree to be one of the most colorful productions of the current year. It closes a most successful run tonight.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Looks to Success of Tenants Seeing Good Near Glendale Northwest Grows Rapidly The Cop Can't Be Kidded

By Gil A. Cowan

TODAY we introduce a new type of landlord, a man who wants to see his tenants succeed.

That is H. S. Webb of the firm which bears his name, who is building what will be known as the Court Shops, located on the north side of East Broadway, between Louise street and Maryland avenue.

In the first place, Mr. Webb sees the necessity for something of this kind. In the second place, he wants to serve the community by giving the smaller shop keeper and others, who require a centrally located place of business, the facilities they desire at a monthly rental within reason.

At the present time, and for some time to come, the cost of frontage is so great that many hard-working shop-keepers can make but a hand-to-mouth existence in paying their proportion for Brand boulevard or Broadway frontage.

Buildings, in many instances, do not go back the full depth of the lot, while ornamental fronts come high. That is all a needless expense. So you can see that Mr. Webb is solving a big problem for at least a dozen people in a way that spells service.

And the nice part about is that this leading merchant is happy to have the opportunity of doing something of this kind. He believes in investing that which he profits from his patrons in the future of Glendale.

All of which builds business.

Here is a communication from A. B. Clement of 1321 North Pacific avenue that makes one sure that this is a wonderful old world after all, where people still can see good in things and help others on their way:

"Mrs. Clement, Mrs. C. D. Ingram and myself visited the large dairy ranch of E. L. White, west of Burbank, recently.

"And in the route traversed we saw all kinds of farming going on. Fruit trees are heavily laden, alfalfa is the finest ever and several dairies are doing well. Mr. White's ranch, for instance, is new and up-to-date, with milk house and barns to handle 160 cows, sixty of which have to be milked three times a day. They average seven gallons each. He has recently purchased 300 fine Holsteins and a 300-acre place from the city of Los Angeles. Most of the milk from his ranch is served to Glendale Creamery customers.

"Returning, we drove up the canyon to the Sunset Canyon country club and found it is a beautiful drive for a variety of scenery."

Out in that section of the city where Mr. and Mrs. Clement reside great changes are taking place. Their ranch home now is in the center of real estate activity, promoted by Charles B. Guthrie and other good Glendale boosters who can see the future of this city. There are others, too, who are doing their share.

For instance, he has gotten up the petition to change the name of Eighth street to Kenneth Road and continue the boulevard through to Burbank, which will add another thoroughfare to the northwestern part of town and more closely link Glendale with its neighbor community.

Glenwood Road, Kenneth Road, San Fernando Road and the cross streets are the logical streets in which to expect great building activity in the coming months, for the development already has a flying start out that way.

Here is a humorous item taken from the telegraph report that will cause many a motorist to smile with self-satisfaction:

"Nobody can kid Henry Brautigan, who rides a motorcycle and rules the highway that runs through Wilmette, a North Shore suburb of Chicago. Therefore—

"When Henry halted an automobile that was breezing along at 36 miles an hour and the chauffeur tried to tell him that his passengers were the governor of Minnesota, the governor of New York, the governor of Kansas, etc., Henry cynically remarked:

"'Everyone that gets arrested is always a governor or a millionaire. Tell it to the judge Saturday morning.'

"Thus it came about that Governor J. A. O. Preus of Minnesota, Governor Henry Allen of Kansas, Governor Nathan Miller of New York, Attorney William G. Marin of New York and Alexander H. Revell, Chicago millionaire, were pinched for speeding. The chauffeur will represent them in court Saturday."

Asserts Rail Rates Must Be Reduced

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—Railroad rates in California must come down correspondingly to national rate reductions, President Harley W. Brundige, of the state railroad commission, declared in a statement today referring to the interstate commerce commission decision ordering a reduction in interstate railroad rates.

"When, on August 26, 1920, the interstate commerce commission increased interstate rates, the California commission correspondingly increased state rates," he said. "It is expected that the railroads will reduce the intrastate rates to conform with the reduction ordered by the interstate commerce commission. If they do not notify this commission of their intention to do so, we shall at once cite them to show cause why the state rates should not be reduced to the new interstate levels."

PARIS, May 25.—France has decided to postpone indefinitely the sending of her official treasury commission to the United States to negotiate the funding of the French debt of more than $3,000,000,000.

This was learned officially coincidentally with the meeting of the international bankers here to discuss additional loans to France and also Germany.

J. P. Morgan is the outstanding figure in the meeting of the bankers, which began in the Hotel Astoria, with M. De La Croix of Belgium presiding.

Morgan has become the most conspicuous man in the public eye since his arrival here for the conference of international bankers. The press is virtually unanimous in saying that if Morgan says "yes" the bankers will agree to a loan for Germany. Also, it is up to Morgan to say how much money the Germans shall get.

It is believed in many quarters that the bankers will agree to a loan on condition that Germany meets certain requirements. Herr Hermes, German minister of finance, is still in Paris and is prepared to give any information the bankers require.

Politicians Worried

Some of the French politicians are worried for fear that Mr. Morgan will prescribe for France the same medicine that France prescribed for Germany—namely, the balancing of the 1923 budget. Under the present budget, France, owing to the expansion of her army and navy, will spend four billion francs more than she will receive in revenues during the forthcoming fiscal year.

It is pointed out in political circles that if France hopes to get another loan in America she must take steps either to reduce her expenditures or increase her revenues.

The bankers have agreed to absolute secrecy "to insure frankest possible discussions." Following the initial session for organization, it was agreed to meet again at 4 p. m.

Stratford Inn Bath House Is Destroyed

DELMAR, May 25.—Due to defective electric wiring, the Stratford Inn bath house was destroyed by fire here with a loss of $20,000. La Jolla and Oceanside sent apparatus to aid in controlling the flames and after a hard fight the blaze was confined to the bath house. Thousands from southern California have weekended at this seashore resort in past seasons.
